Notes for current account members only

- Is a replacement cheque book required? Yes  No
- We reserve the right to decline a request to remove an account holder.
- The joint holder will lose all benefits linked to the account once removed.

Notes for all account holders

Unless the remaining account holders are registered for internet banking, you will automatically be sent paper statements. You can register for internet banking by visiting nationwide.co.uk/internetbanking

Notes for Savings account members only

- If your account has a nominated account for withdrawals, this will not be automatically removed or changed by Nationwide. It is the remaining account holder's responsibility to ensure that the nominated account is owned by them (solely or jointly), and this can be updated in branch or by logging into the Internet Bank.
